Henry Allen & Son

FURNISHING UNDERTAKERS

88 Main St.

LABY ASSISTANT WHEN REQUESTED

WULF

NEW LINE of FALL DRESS GOODS direct from mills at very low prices.
Assortment lengths of all kinds. Goods and Silks at Half Prices MILL REMNANT STORE JOHN BLOOM, Prop. 171 W. Main St.

AMERICAN HOUSE,

Farrell & Sandarson, Props. SPECIAL RATES to Theatre Troupes Traveling Men, etc. Livery connected SHETUCKET STREET.

PEACHES

No. 1 PEACHES

for canning, this morning at Chapman's Flatiron Building, Broadway. C. F. LILLIBRIDGE.

The Melon Grower

YOUR TEETH

NEED TO BE FIXED. WHY SUFFER PAIN OR PAY LARGE PRICES?

Without the least particle of pain you can have the most sen-sitive teeth removed by our method.

We fill teeth with silver or enamel for 50 cents and gold for $1.00, or solid gold crowns for $5.00.

Dr. H. D. Sydleman is a member of this Association and su-perintends the manufacture of perintends the manufacture of our artificial teeth. He has no equal in this branch of dentistry. By ordering of us you receive the benefit of his years of ex-Work guaranteed ten years.

and as we lease our offices and have been established here eight years, our guarantee is of indisputable value.

We will be pleased any time to examine your teeth without

Open from 9 a. m. till 8 p. m.

King Dental Parlors

DR. JACKSON, Mgr. Franklin Square, Norwich, Conn.

NEWMARKET HOTEL, 715 Boswell Ave. First-class Wines, Liquers and Clgar-Meals and Welch Rarebit acress to order. John Tuckle, Prop. Tel. 43-5.

An Extra Choice Line

School Bags and Straps

CRANSTON'S

On Exhibition

A fine assortment of the Latest Styles in Millinery for Fall and Winter wear MRS. G. P. STANTON'S,

No. 52 Shetucket Street.

STOP! READ! THINK! ACT! Every busy business man longs for an assistant, someone who can relieve him of the detail work-and can do i right. The ambitious stemographer will prepare to shoulder responsibilities, for the opportunity of a promotion always flows to him who is neady to "make

My course in Shorthand and Type writing gives this proparation. Each student given my personal attention. HATTIE L. JEWETT, 283 Main St., Norwich, Conn. Multi-Kopy Carbon Paper and Star Brand Ribbons for all standard typewriters carried in stock.

Just try seme of our BRONCHIAL LOZENGES and see how they clear away that thick feeling in your throat.

10c a box at DUNN'S PHARMACY

50 Main Street

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Thursday, Sept. 21, 1911.

The Bulletin should be delivered everywhere in the city before 6 a. m. Subscribers who fail to receive 12 by that time will confer a rayor by reporting the fact to The Bulletin Co.

THE WEATHER.

Ferecast For Today. For New England: Fair Thursday; Friday increasing cloudiness; light-va-Predictions from the New York Her-ald: On Thursday fair weather and light westerly winds will prevail, with nearly stationary temperatures, and on Friday fair and warmer weather.

Observations in Nerwich. The following records, reported from evin's pharmacy, show the changes i temperature and the barometric

Wednesday: 12 m.

Comparisons. Predictions for Wednesday: Fair; light variable winds. Wednesday's weather: As predicted.

Rises. | Sets . | Water. | Rises.

|| a. m. | p. m. || a. m. || a. m.

Six hours after high water it is low tide, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE NEWS.

Funerals of John D. Downes and John J. Shugrue-Notes.

Men in the employ of the city are engaged in removing several large elm trees on Central avenue tetween Hickory and Second streets Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Maine attended the North Stonington fair on Wednes-

Misses Helen Sullivan and May Fitz-gerald of Westerly, R. I., spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Delaney of Sixth street.

Mrs. Simon Slosberg and daughter have returned to Jersey City, after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Solomon of Fifth street.

FUNERALS.

John D. Downes. The funeral of John D. Downes was held from his date home, No. 100 Fifth street, at 9.30 o'clock Wednesday street, at $3.00 o'clock Wednesday morning, with services in St. Mary's church at 16 o'clock. Rev. J. H. Fitzmaurice was celebrant of the mass, Rev. James J. Smith of New Haven deacon. Rev. P. J. McCormack of Washington, D. C., sitb-deason, and Rev. William H. Kennedy master of ceremonies. Pie Jesu was rendered by Mrs. Mary L. Sliney, and William Delaney sang Face to Face. Many friends and relatives were present. As the body was taken from the church the full choir rendered Nearer, My God, to Thee. The music was in charge of the organist, Miss Lena Boudreau.

The handsome fioral forms included The handsome floral forms included the following: Wreath from the church collectors, standing form from the ascollectors, standing form from the as-sitant registrars, pillow from the grandohildren, foral heart from Wil-liam Campion, bouquets from B. R. Tilly and family, Miss May Reardon, and George Lacy. The bearers were John T. Sullivan, Jeremiah J. Kirby, John H. Cleary, Joseph A. Donnelly, Daniel O'Neil and Edward Maloney, Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, where a committal service was conwhere a committal service was conducted at the grave. The large attendance included relatives from Forsetville, Conn., Staten Island, Johnsonbury, Pa., and Pawtucket, R. I. Shea & Burke had charge of the arrangements.

John J. Shugrue.

The funeral of John J. Shugrue was held from his late home, off Golden street, Wednesday morning. Rev. William H. Kennedy officiated at the services in St. Mary's church, and a solo was rendered by Mrs. Mary L. Sliney. There was a large attendance, including many from out of town. The floral forms cere numerous and beautiful.

The bearers were John and Timothy The bearers were John and Timothy Sullivan of Providence, John J. Connelly, John O'Brien, and John and James Barry of Norwich. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, where a committal service was conducted by Father Kennedy. M. Hourigan had charge of the funeral arrangements.

TAFTVILLE

Mrs. Paschal Casavant Died in Providence-Notes.

Mathilda Casavant, widow of Paschal Casavant, died at a Providence hospital Monday evening, following an operation, which proved unsuccessful. She was a resident of Taftville for 30 years, making her home on Hunters avenue for some time. She went to Providence about two years ago. Her husband passed away here some time ago. Mrs. Casavant was 54 years old. She had a large circle of friends in Taftville, and her death is deeply mourned. Mathilda Casavant, widew of Pas-mourned.

She leaves a son, Eli Casavant, formerly engaged in the furniture business in Taftville, a daughter, Mrs. D. Morrissette of Providence, and a daughter in Grosvenordale. There is also a brother in Grosvenordale, another in Providence, and a sister, Mrs. Paleaville of Pavidence.

Peloquin of Providence, and a sister, Mrs. Peloquin of Providence.

Mrs. J. C. Marsan and A. Pion left Wednesday afternoon for Providence, to attend the funeral this (Thursday)

Notes.

William Delaney was in Willimantic on business Wednesday,

Several from Taftville were at the Rockville fair on Wednesday.

George Weisard is spending several days in New York city on business. Charles T. Webster left Wednesday for Boston, where he will spend a week with friends.

Mrs. Henry Mercier has returned from a visit with relatives in North Grosvenordale and Jewett City.

Tom Dobson of Pawtucket, a former resident of Tartville, visited friends here on Wednesday. Mr. Dobson has been located in Chicago, but is now general secretary of the Y. M. C. A in Pawtucket.

Funeral AGER Director and Embalmer

70 Franklin St., Bulletin Bido. Telephone 642-2. Prompt service day or night Lady Assistant Residence 116 Broadway. opp. Theatre. Telephone 642-2.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL HAMBURG

nducted By Lyme Grange Fair Association—Pronounced Success In Every Way—Many Premiums

A bountiful dinner was served to hundreds by the ladies of Lyme grange, the dinner committee being Mrs. M. E. Huntley, chairman, William Marvin and Mrs. Ellen Palmer. Conducted By Lyme Grange Fair Association-Pro-Awarded.

The 15th annual Hamburg fair was mens of penmanship, all so excellent that the judges' task was not an easy one. The school prizes were awarded as follows: The 15th annual Hamburg fair was held on Wednesday, and in all ways it was as thorough-going an old fashloned country fair and as big a success socially and financially as any that the Lyme Grange Fair association has held in the decade and a half. There were over 1,500 people on the grounds. A number were in attendance from Norwich, going by team and auto.

The Devon cattle from all parts of

The Devon cattle from all parts of Lyme and from neighboring towns were, as usual, one of the main attractions to the visitors. While in points of number this year's display of oxen was not up to some of the shows in the past, yet in the 125 yoke that stretched in long strings over the grounds was clearly manifest the quality that has gained for the Lyme Devons a wide reputation. The handsome animals showed to fine advantage the care and attention with which they had been bred and raised and many were the admiring comments bestowed upon them by the hundreds who inspected them during the day. The Devon cattle from all parts of Devon Stock Shown. Ray L. Harding, president of the fair association, was one of the foremost exhibitors of choice cattle, showing nine yoke of handsome Devon stock from the Ashlawn farm, Lymz. His oxen took the first premium for one year olds, second two years old, and for the kest single armal he was awarded. the best single animal he was awarded the first prize.

J. J. Tiffany, Lyme, had 12 pairs of J. J. Tiffany, Lyme, had 12 pairs of oxen on the ground and to his fine exhibit went the first premium for the best individual team. He was first on six year olds, second on yearlings.

Harry G. Pierson, Old Lyme, had a particularly fine appearing string of 10 yoke of Devon oxen, besides two other pairs of cattle. To him went second award for the individual team, first and second, on steer calves, and second on five and three year olds.

E. E. Gillette, Lyme, showing five yoke, took first money for three year olds, second for four year old oxen.

Clarence Brockway captured two first premiums with the two pairs of oxen he entered in the competition, oxen he entered in the competition, having the banner yoke of five year olds and the best pair of beef oxen. J. S. Daniels, Lyme, was second in the six year old class.

Some More Winners. Henry Maynard, with two pairs, took the first award for two year old oxen, and one of Arthur Sweet's two yoke made the blue ribbon on the four year old class. Among the other exhibitors of cattle were J. L. Raymond 10 pairs, Lewis O. Gates, William Sawyer four pairs, Martin Banning three pairs, H. C. Pierson, Lyme, five pairs, Lyman Harding five pairs, Griswold Bros, Old Lyme, three pairs, E. J. Swaney, Old Lyme, three pairs, E. J. Swaney, Old Lyme, three pairs, B. E. Swaney, Old Lyma, one pair, W. S. King, Old Lyme, one pair, John Plimpton, Lyme, one pair.

Breeding Cattle. the class of breeding cattle, Ray In the class of breeding cattle, Ray L. Harding was the only exhibitor of thoroughbred Devons. His premiums were: First for bull, first and second cow, first and second three year old, first two year old, first yearling, first heifer calf. C. F. Jewett's bull calf took a rst premium as did C. F. Beebe's fine appearing Jersey cow.

The cattle department was in charge of H. L. Gillette, and the judges numbered five: Sherwood Raymond, Norwich, Clarence Burke, Millington, George Clark, Lyme, Arthur Stebbins, Saybrook, William O. Peck, Saybrook, Good Number of Horses.

Good Number of Horses. There was a good showing of horses this year, the second that this depart-ment has been held. C. F. Jewett was in charge, and Matt Tinker was judge. The first prize for the stallion three years old or over went to George Gelston of East Haddam, who showed his handsome Percheron that took first money at the Charter Oak fair The second award went to T. W. Leete. Chaster, who was first in the two year old class, with L. E. Whitney. Niantic, second. Ray L. Harding won the first award for mare with colt by side, and I. W. Stark was second in this class. ward for mare with colt by side, and W. Stark was second in this class. Stark took the blue ribbon and toney in the yearling class, with Mike Topaz second. Excellent Display of Poultry.

In the poultry cages there were many excellent fowl shown. Henry Clark was in charge of this department. Rob-ert Sawyer of Saybrook was given first awards for geese and ducks. He also took blue ribbons for Chester White pigs and for Shropshire and Southdown rams.

down rams.

Other premium winners were H N.
Morgan's Orpington chicks and buff rock fowl; John Cruttenden's. Waterford, buff Orpingtons and Columbia Wyandottes; the black Orpingtons shown by Frank Beebe.

Turkey's shown by L. D. Harding; accondas, Harry Walsh; white Wyandotte fowl, Joseph Stiett, Niantic;
white Leghorns, Rhode Island reds, J.
F. Fowler, Hadlyme; black Orpingtons and homer pigeons, Frank Beebe, Niartic; guinea hens, Bert Chapiman.
Mrs. C. H. Morse shower handsome
Orpington pullets. Orpington pullets.

Rabbits, Cats, and Miscellaneous Animals.

Frank Beebe, Niantic, also showed rabbits, as did Orrin Banning, Old Lyme, and both took premiums, while Miss Grace Perry's guinea pigs won the blue ribbon. Cecil Banning and G. and W. Griswold also had rabbits. There were a number of exhibitors of There were a number of exhibitors of cats. Mrs. Pentz of New York won a special premium by her display, and among those who showed their house pets were May Vreeland, Old Lyme: Harriet Reynolds, Hazel Harding, Mrs. Pay I. Harding Olive Stork and Mar. Ray L. Harding, Olive Stark and Mar-jorie Lord of Bill Hill. Sheep were shown by E. W. Ely, G. and W. Griswold had goats and Berkshire pigs.

Many Dogs Were Exhibited. The dogs were a noticeable feature of the outdoor exhibit. Ernest Rogers had seven handsome animals on exhibition, two points, two Liewellyn sethibition, two points, two Llewellyn setters, two English setters and an Irish settler, and all were blue-ribboners. George Griswold's cocker spaniel was a premium taker, while Nelson Miner, Pleasant Valley, had an interesting exhibit of eight foxhounds, four being three months old puppies; Ernest Schniring had a water spaniel and William Bogue a cocker spaniel. Ralph Tooker showed a hound. An exhibitor who has not failed to attend Hamburg fair for years was again present this fair for years was again present this year and Jap O'Connell of New Lon-don had his handsome coach dos entered. As usual, Mr. O'Connell land-ed a blue ribbon. Abbie Caulkins of Old Lyme showed a coach dog.

Exhibition Building.

The exhibition building was filled almost to overflowing this year. In almost to overflowing this year. In all the departments the displays were large and varied, and the attractive rooms were kept filled with a constant stream of interested and admiring visitors. There is shown this fall for the first time a valuable collection of Indian relies, while the fancy work art and other exhibits in new work, art and other exhibits, in num-ber and quality, were quite up to the high standard that has heretofore been set at the Hamburg fair.

Exhibit of Writing.

as follows:

Sterling City school, Harriet ReyLolds; Johnstown school, Helen Bayersick; Hadlyme school, Hazel Ely; Bill
Hill school, Marjorie Lord; Grassy Hill school, Grace Perry; North Lyme school, Grace Perry. The prize for the pupil who excelled in all the schools was given Miss Grace Perry. The school prizes were each one dollar and the general prize two dollars.

Acting as judges were Eugene D. Calkins of Lyme, Nathan S. Hall of Preston and Principal Fairclough of Deep River

Deep River. Fancy Work.

Fancy Work.

In the fancy work department, the Hamburg Congregational church had an attractive booth in charge of Mrs. Charles Peck, assisted by Miss Anna Antonson, with a pleasing array of dolls, fancy work, postal cards, and similar articles. On the other side of the room, there was a beautiful display of embrcidery, crochet work and other fancy work. Miss Carrie Mack, Millington, Conn. was a prominent exhibitor with Irisn croclet and other fine specimens of needlework. Miss Jenspecimens of needlework. Miss Jennie M. Thompson, Hadlyme, showed white embroidery, a brautiful bureau scarf being especially noticeable in her exhibit. Miss Josephine Flala, Hadlyme, Mrs. Ray Harding, Lyme, Mrs.
John Webb, Chester, showed embroidery. Miss Mabel Martin, Hamburg, had a nicely executed colored centerpiece and there were excellent specimens of embroidery shown by Mrs.
William Hawthorne, Hadlyme, and Miss Dora Reynolds, Hamburg,
Mrs. Emil Diesch, Hadlyme, had a bedspread and Mrs. Robert Sawyer, Saybrook, tatting. Miss Mary Lee, of Lyme, had white embroidery also, and an embroidered bureau set was shawn by Miss Ella Griffin, Millington,
On the center table was the large specimens of needlework. Miss Jen

On the center table was the large collection of sofa pillows. Among the exhibitors here were Mrs. Carrie Franger, Hamburg, with a worseted and velvet pitlow and one in yellow crochets; Mrs. N. S. Streng, Hadlyme, Mrs. Carleton F. Jewett, with a handpainted pillow, Miss Dora Reynolds, Mrs. Cyrus Roberts, Hamburg, showed huck work and Mrs. Jaffy Clark, Hamburg, ware work pillows. burg, crazy work pillows.

Antiques Shown. In the department of antiques Mrs. Mary R. Fosdick, North Lyme, showed a collection of pewter plates, luster ware, oil lamps, specimens over 150 years old. A shirt made of flax, woven in Lyme over a century ago, and a pair of pants worn by a fifer in the war of 1812 were shown by Mrs.

Caroline Reynolds.
Ellot W. Elly, Hadlyme, showed an interesting collection of Indian arrowheads and other relies. Miss Gertrude Ely had on exhibition a small pine box made by hand. H. B. Sisson of Hamburg showed sheil work by the Gay Head Indians and also old New England banknotes. Harold Clark had a model of the First church of Hartford, 1836. Caroline Reynolds.

Bedquilts and Paintings.

In the collection of bedquilts Mrs. Carrie Granger was a large exhibitor, and Mrs. Jaffy Clark, Mrs. Harriet Warner, Joshuatown, and Mrs. W. B. Kingsley were others who had artikingsley were others who had arti-cles in this department. A quilt with 3,520 pieces, made by Mrs. G. H. Strong, North Lyme, was shown by Mrs. Erwin Rogers, who also had rugs. Other rug displays were by Mrs. Mary R. Fosdick and Mrs. H. I. Smith Lyme.

Smith, Lyme, Goorge H, Bruestle, the New York artist, who summers in Hamburg, had a fine disuplay of oils, dealing for the most part with marine subjects. Mrs. Harriet Warner showed landscape Harriet warner showed landscape paintings, and there was a scene in Hamburg cove by the late William Burg of New York. Mrs. Fosdick had three cil paintings and there was one watercolor, a portrait by Miss Dora Baymald, Reynolds

An oriental rug was shown by Mrs. Pentz of New York. Flowers.

There was a most creditable display of flowers, the chief exhibitor being Miss Carrie P. Bill, Lyme, Mrs. M. E. Huntley, Mrs. Hayden Reynolds, Hamburg, Mrs Emma Webber, Mrs. John Slate, the last with a green dahlia, were other exhibitors, and flowers were also shown by Mrs. Lucy Daniels, Mrs. Olsen and Mrs. Lyman Harding.

The school display, drawings, water nent features, was a corner that was full of interest. It was in charge of Mrs Lucy Daniels and Miss Maria Harding.

A. W. T. Society Booth. The Ladies' A. W. T. society of North Lyme had a booth where pennants, work baskets, scrap baskets, bed-quilts and rugs were displayed most temptingly.

Mrs. Sven Olsen of Hamburg had the most interesting emilities a linen sheet of flax raised, spun, woven and embroidered by her in Sweden.

The foregoing departments were under the capable direction of this committee: Mrs. Carlton Jewett, chairman, Mrs. Charles Beebe, Mrs. Nathan Strong, Mrs. Mary R. Fosdick.

Tremiums in these departments were awarded as follows:

Rugs, Mrs. Erwin Rogers: bedquilts, Mrs. W. B. Kingsley: crocheted wool, Mrs. Cyrus Roberts: crocheted cotton, bedspread, first prize, Mrs. Emil Driesch, special prize, Miss Carrie Mack; knitted cotton, Mrs. Alice Phelps, bedspread, special, Mrs. Harriet Warner: white embroidery, bureau Phelps, bedspread, special, Mrs. Harriet Warner; white embroidery, bureau scarf, Jennie Thompson; centerpiece, Mrs. Ray Harding; colored embroidery, first, Mrs. Ella Griffin, special, Josephine Fiala; shirt waists, Dora Reynolds; sofa pillows, Mrs. Carrie Granger; tattiag work, Mrs. Robert Sawyer; crocheted in cotton, Carrie Mack; art, portrait in oil, George Breustle; best oil landscape, Mrs. Harriet Warner; watercolor, Dora Reynolds, specials in oils, George Bruestle, Mrs. Warner (2), Mrs. Mary R. Fosdick.

Fruit and Vegetables.

Gilbert H. Strong was again in charge of the fruit and vegetable department, where there was a most varied and tmepting display. He was capably assisted by William Stark, J. Ely Beebe, Mrs. John Cone, Mrs. Kate Beynnids. Reynolds.

Reynolds.

Occupying a prominent position at the head of the hall was Elliott Ely's Hadlyme exhibit of splendid looking fruit, his peaches being so arranged as to spell Lyme Fair 1911. He was the largest exhibitor of fruit, as was George M. Miller, of Hadlyme, of vegetables. James Daniers, Hamburg, George Griswold and Richard Lee of Grassy Hill had fine displays of both George Griswold and Richard Lee of Grassy Hill had fine displays of both fruit and vegetables. Ray L. Harding had fruit and Mrs. A. B. Talcott some fine pears. Mrs. Hayden Reynolds showed pears and grapes. J. L. Newton. Lyme, large cauliflowers, James Fowler, Hadlyme, fruit: J. Ely Beebe, fruit. Extraordinary Bitthammond apples were shown by Lyman D. Harding and Mrs. M. E. Huntley had a large exhibit of fruit and vegetables. Rev. Francis Purvis showed gourds. Grapes were exhibited by Mrs. Carrie Bill, Lodowick Bill, Griswold S. Per-Exhibit of Writing.

The competition for prizes for the best handwriting open to all the pupils of the schools of the town of Lyme was a new feature introduced by the fair association this year. It resulted in a most interesting display of speci-man Harding, cranberries, Robert Sawyer, Saybrook, had the biggest cabbage and Ray Harding the largest Grange Ladies Served Fine Dinner.

East Haddam Played.

The East Haddam Bohemian band furnished music for the fair visitors in liberal quantities, A vendor of whips did a thriving business and many farmers laid up a stock. The many farmers laid up a stock. The candy and soda water stands were surrounded by a crowd of thirsty peo-ple almost all the time and the fortune teller was kept busy. There were ponies for the young people to ride, souvenir sellers and in fact everything that goes to make a complete coun-

Athletic Events.

The series of athletic events were run off smoothly under the direction of Field Marshal Charles F. Beebe, William Caldwell and Carroll Menner of the Springfield Training school were the Springfield Training school were judge and starter, respectively, and they filled their positions in an impartial and satisfactory manner. The scorer was Rev. Robert Oakes and the events went as follows:

Pole Vault—Won by John Marvin, Decp River; height, 8 feet 2 inches. 75 Yard Dash—John Marvin, first, C. W. Leete, Chester, second.

High Jump—John Marin, first, C. W. Leete second.

Leete second. Shot Put-John McNeill, Old Lyme. first, 36 feet 7 inches; Joan Marvin, and C. W. Leete tied for second place. Broad Jump—C. W. Leete first, 16 feet 9 inches; John Marvin second. Boys High Jump—R. Fields. Boys 75-Yard Dash—Floyd Conk-lin.

this programme, the Following Springfield Training school men gave an exhibition throwing the discus and putting the shot, Officers of the Fair. Officers of the Pair.

The present officers of the Lyme grange fair association are Ray L. Harding, president; William Marvin, vice president; J. Warren Stark, secretary, and H. B. Sisson. They were all busy men Wednesday, and to their efforts much of the success of the fair is due. In the exhibition building, however the ladies did their share. Much ever, the ladies did their share. Much of the management and hard work fell on the shoulders of Mrs. Charles F. Beebe, who, however, as usual, ful-filled her varied duties in a most capable and pleasing manner. It was co-operation in all departments, in-cluding that of the weather, that made the fifteenth Hamburg fair what it

NORWICH TOWN

Damage by Recent Frost-Mrs. William H. Palmer Gives Pleasure to Sheltering Arms Patients.

Miss Hattie Jenkins of West Town street is visiting friends in Stoning-

Woodbury O. Rogers of Washington street goes today (Thursday) to Bos-ton for a brief stay.

Mrs. Edwin C. Fenner of the Old Canterbury turnpike is the guest of friends in Alton. R. I. Miss Mary A. Davis of Worcester is the guest of Miss J. G. Bonney at her home on Huntington lane.

Mrs. Ellen Beetham has been spend-ing part of the week with her son, R. A. Beetham of Wauwecus Hill. Mrs. Herbert Boardman of Holliston, Mass., is visiting her mother, Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus hill. Edward Beebe of Belleview is filling silos in different localities—Wauwecus Hill, Laurel Hill and Raymond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mullin have returned to their home on East Town street after several months' stay at Fishers Island.

Miss Annie McNamara of Wight-man avenue left early in the week for Northampton, Mass., where she will enter Smith college. Allison C. Rogers of Washington street leaves today (Thursday) for Boston, where he will enter the Bos-ton Institute of Technology.

Errel C. Wilcox of the Scotland road left Wednezday for Kingston, R. I., where he is a member of the second year class at the state college.

Mrs. S. J. Moseley of New London has been the guest of Mrs. O. S. Smith of Huntington avenue. While here she visited her old home in Franklin.

Mrs. Chester Cook and Mrs. E. C. Hammond have returned to Ithaca, N. Y., after visiting at Mrs. Cook's former home on the Old Canterbury turnpike. Auto Outing for Shut-Ins.

A party of four from the Shelter-ing Arms enjoyed an automobile ride to Ocean beach and return Tuesday afternoon through the kindness of Mrs. William H. Paimer. Blighting Effects of Frost. Farmers on the Canterbury turnpike and Nevins lane lost nearly everything from their gardens—melon, corn, squash and potatoes—through the frost

DIED.

GIBSON-In New London, Sept. 19, 1911 Ellen, wife of John Gibson, aged 46 CASAVANT-In Providence. Sept. 18. 1911. Mathilda, widow of Paschal Casavant, formerly of Taftville.

15 Main Street,

Funeral Directors

Embalmers.

Lady Assistant. Telephone call 328-3. Henry E. Church. Wm. Smith Allen.

Patrician Shoes Latest Fall styles. $3.50 and $4.00. A woman's shoe that's right.

104 Main Street

MAFE NHOWTUCK ANITARY PRING WATER WATISFYING

FRANK A. BILL,

Sold only by Telephone.

Tel. 34-2. Norwich, Conn.

JEWETT CITY HOTEL New and Up-to-date in every particular. IRA F. LEWIS, Proprietor.

COAL AND LUMBER

COAL

LESS COAL BOUGHT THIS SUMMER THAN EVER

An awful rush this Fall and Winter. You had better take yours in Sepember-you will be sure of getting it good and well delivered.

CHAPPELL CO.

Central Wharf and 150 Main Street.

LUMBER

COAL

Free Burning Kinds and Lehigh ALWAYS IN STOCK.

A. D. LATHROP.

Office-cor Market and Shetucket Sta. Telephone 163-12.

CALAMITE COAL

Well Seasoned Wood

C. H. HASKELL. 402 - 'Phones - 489

JOHN A. MORGAN & SON. Coal and Lumber

Telephone 884. Central Whart VINEGAR

By the barrel, gallon or quart.

A. L. Reynolds

328 Washington Street. Call and See Our

$20. Tailor-made Overcoats Cloth Shop, J. T. DONOVAN. 327 Main Street. Phone 591.

WALL PAPERS Imported and Domestic

The Fanning Studios, 31 Willow Street

LACE CURTAINS FURNITURE

DESIGNS AND COLORINGS

UNEXCELLED.

UPHOLSTERY Sponge Cake

at CARDWELL'S 3-9 Market Street

Diamonds Our Specialty. QUALITY GUARANTEED

the Lowest

John & Geo. H. Bliss.

Prices positively

as represented.

NOTICE

On account of the present condition of Fairview Reservoir, the use of hose for street, lawn or garden sprinkling is strictly prohibited until further netice. This order will be strictly en-

Per order BOARD OF WATER COMMISSION-

Telephone 254_12. S. HACKER, 65 Franklin Street, Manufacturer of COUCHES AND LOUNGES.

trance. Thona

Repairing and Polishing Barber Chairs a Specialty Mattresses made over equal to New Slip Covers cut and made to order

Upholstery

DENTIST DR. E. J. JONES Suite 46, Shannon Building Take elevator Shetucket street en-

THERE is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bui-letin for business results.